Executive Finance Review Meeting

FXFCUTIVE FINANCE REVIEW MEETING

The annual compliance requirements associated with operating your business through a limited company, are only part of the value that a commercially experienced accountant can provide to a business.

Accountants can also have a significant impact on the ability of a business to grow and develop successfully, through the following:

- a) helping to implement key systems and processes
- b) providing tight fiscal (cost / pricing) and operational control
- c) enabling better and more effective decisions to be made by the business owners

However, for many 'start ups' and early stage businesses, they are not yet at the point where they are willing to, or even able to, afford significant accountancy fees for commercial or strategic advice on their business, even where they understand the importance or value this can provide!

Therefore the Executive Finance review meeting, whether on a quarterly or monthly basis, is our solution:

- straightforward opportunity for practical, commercial business advice for a simple, fixed fee
- encouraging business owners to keep the importance of basic financial information in mind
- providing direction on identifying Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) at as early a stage as possible
- having access to an external, experienced professional to help resolve business issues and problems from time to time
- encouraging business owners to look forward and react quickly and effectively to events or opportunities that may arise

HOW WILL IT BENEFIT ME & MY BUSINESS?

WHY?

- According to recent business surveys, it is estimated that anything from 50% to 65% of new Irish businesses fail within the first 5 years, but also up to 81% of Irish businesses struggle to scale up, with the biggest reasons given for failure or stagnation being lack of appropriate talent, lack of cash or funding options as well as the lack of business planning.
- Especially suitable for 'start-up' or 'early stage' businesses, where bookkeeping and financials are dealt with internally (typically by the business owner)
- Provides access to experienced financial and business advice for the business, without commitment to on-going substantial fees
- Highlights the importance of maintaining focus on key financials for the business i.e. sales and turnover, gross margin(s), level of overheads, operating profit(s) etc.
- Identifies any specific compliance errors or omissions which require correction i.e. issues with ROS, errors in respect of payroll, inaccurate VAT returns
- Provides an opportunity for various financial or other queries to be raised by the business owner and resolved during the course of the financial year

BENEFITS?

- With over 15 years' experience of working in SMEs in a variety of business sectors, our advice is based on practical, 'real world' and 'best practice' solutions
- ldentifies financial and other risks facing the business at an early stage, allowing them to be managed or mitigated ahead of time
- Enables the business to avoid mistakes and errors typical to 'start-ups' e.g. poor management of cash, lack of credit control etc.
- Enables strategic financial issues (key to successfully growing the business), to be raised at an early stage with business owners e.g. budgets, cashflow management, KPIs, finance/investment etc
- Provides post meeting accountability through use of action points to deliver on agreed progress
- Supports the ability to make better and more informed business decisions i.e. on potential opportunities, marketing and overhead spend, new business etc.
